

Greetings to the Faithful !

Psalms 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Reasoning with God will make you confident in your actions.

Philippians 4:11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

Get Prepared

Prepared to accept whatever happened, the widow faced the day boldly.

Mark 12:44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Equipped for the journey she approached God's Temple Treasury with faith. This woman cast into God's Treasury all of her wants. Now she had no more wants. She left the Temple ~ and Jesus ~ with the peace that God would take care of her no matter what. She had faith to believe that she would have sufficient means to meet her every need. Facing her future with faith she doubted her doubts because doubts kill faith.

Don't kill your faith.

Knowing who he learned it from Paul wrote with certainty.

2 Timothy 1:12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

How to make wise decisions is taught in the Bible.

Hebrews 13:5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Increase your wisdom by studying God's Word.

James 3:17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

Count the cost. Don't kill your faith with your doubts. Doubt your doubts.

Accept Jesus payment for your sins or you will pay a much higher price on your own.

The leading part of the New Testament is Luke.

He tells the story of the angel at the altar of incense in Luke 1:11. This broke God's silence between the Old and New Testament. God so loved the world He gave us Luke, a Gentile, to write two books in our Bible.

Deciding in his conscience Luke made his move. He went from Troas to Macedonia with Paul.

Our conscience is the Law of our Mind. It decides the actions we take.

God's Word is the highest we can know therefore IT becomes our conscience.

Right and wrong is decided in our conscience.

Engaging our most trusted conscience we make our move.

1 Timothy 6:6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

I shall not want !
